

March 8, 2011

Dear National Secretaries of member countries in SCW Asia,
cc: Pramod Kumar, Election Officer
cc: Anna Flammini, Sylvia Krogh, Nominations Committee
cc: EXCO

The elections for Servas Area Coordinator for South Central West Asia will be held soon. The following member groups of SCW Asia are entitled to one vote each: India, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Pakistan, Sri Lanka and Uzbekistan.

Attached please find the AC Guidelines document, which explains the complete process.

Here is some specific information for this 2011 South Central West Asia election:

1. EXCO has appointed Pramod Kumar, Vice-President of Servas International (pramod.servas@gmail.com) as the Election Officer for this election. He will announce the election schedule, including the deadline for nominations, the date of the vote and the date when the results will be announced.
2. The Nominations Committee is:
Anna Flammini from Italy (annaflammini@tiscali.it)
Sylvia Krogh from Canada (skrogh@shaw.ca)
3. A nominee must be a resident of South Central West Asia.
4. Nominations are to be submitted to the Nominations Committee using the standard nominations form (attached).

Any National Secretary may nominate a candidate, even if the candidate is not from the National Secretary's country.

Thank you for your participation in this Area Coordinator election process. The South Central West Asia Area Coordinator position is an important one, and will be important to your Servas success during the next three years.

In peace,
Penny Pattison
General Secretary
Servas International