Information in support of the candidate	Francisco Salomon has done an excellent job as International Secretary for Peace and I think he should continue this work. He has supported the formation and dissemination of new Schools of Peace in other countries and continents, has promoted the organization of meetings in Latin America and has given growth to this area and also he has participated in numerous meetings around the world. He is a very responsible and committed person to the work of Servas International and should continue in EXCO. He is a very valuable person in this organization.
