Motivation. Why are you volunteering for this position? What can you offer Servas and what do you hope to achieve?	Why are you volunteering for this position? Servas is a beautiful organisation, founded on the simple but fundamental ideal that violence is preventable. I have benefitted both as a host and a traveller, and I would now like to offer my skills and experience to help Servas further develop. Do you have any particular skills or expertise to offer in this role? Over many years I have provided advice, support and guidance including to small businesses and co-operatives, and to voluntary organisations. For example, I was a Chief Officer in local government, holding the position of Director of Economic and Social Development. I have much experience in teamwork, a key factor in achieving success; and in networking and bringing people together. I have good communication skills. What do you think the priorities for Servas should be in your role? a) Providing country chapters with actual or imminent organisational issues with timely, sound advice and support leading to outcomes that strengthen and empower the countries themselves; b) Giving particular attention to strengthening Servas countries in the "Global South"; c) Spreading good practice, for example in the many ways to encourage all our members to be active peace-builders, and in creating opportunities for young people to participate
