1st Nominator	Amir Levy, Israel, A few Int. Roles
Information in support of the candidate	I know Bogdan in person and for many years. I had the privilege to not only get to know a very great person and a wonderful family one, but also to see him in action. For me Bogdan is a man of work and not only words. The Servas meeting he has arranged in Romania became a symbol for me to how organizing a meeting should look like. Both logistically and from the content point of view. Bogdan for me is the right person for the scope to activities the Youth and Families Committee is expected to perform, and I can be sure he will do it in the best way possible.

Information in support of the candidate	Bogdan Ionesco, Servas Romania, is a good candidate for the Youth & Families Committee,. Bogdan and his wife have 4 children and they love to do interesting and exciting activities together, connecting with nature and with the history of the places. The first time I met them, they were touring around Europe in a caravan with their children. I have many reasons to believe that Bogdan can bring innovative ideas to this Committee, specially focusing on families with small children, which is something that is not yet fully developed in Servas.
