Volunteering for the Position of:

Conflict resolution team

Candidate's name:	Korab Anzhalika
Gender:	Woman
Year of birth:	23/05/80

Motivation. Why are you volunteering for this position? What can you offer Servas and what do you hope to achieve?	After being a member and active on the national level for many years, most as an NS, and receiving from Servas a lot, I feel the need to contribute more, and to many more, and that can be achieved only on the international level. In addition I think that every can help in the best way by taking advantage of her personal skills and gained educations. So being now an qualified nad profesional psychologist, with main practice of consulting and resolving problems, misunderstandings and conflicts I think that I can contribute a lot in this field. Also, living in a Russian speaking culture, mainly this last painful year of war in my area I get to see more and more importance to help people in my area, who need help and guidance, many also among Servas members. For yeas I see how English and Sanish members are more in the spot light while there are so many countries and people from the Russian area are not having the chance to be heard or active. If I shall gain the trust and be elected to that position, I think that I can do quite a lot in creating more understanding, solve problems and promote acknowledgment in my area. Again, mainly currently when there is so much need for help in this field. Servas need more youngers motivated members to move servas forward. Those who can bring fresh ideas, are more open to listen and share, not being afraid to change and are more communicative. The main priority is to create harmony, accepting each other and not to judge or put labels based on country, language, religion or age. And that is what promote peace more than any empty talks or sitting at home, leaving others to do
